

Kinema in the Woods, Woodhall Spa

What a fabulous first trip of the year to the Kinema the in Woods at Woodhall Spa.

First stop was Crowders Nurseries for light refreshments, then on to the Kinema in the Woods to watch the new Tom Hanks film, A Man Called Otto, which was fabulous. Such a lovely venue too. On our way home we called into Crowders again and enjoyed a walk around the shop then finished with our afternoon tea, which was lovely as always. Such a variety of sandwiches and cakes, fresh coffee and tea.

Finally Sleafordian Coaches got us safely back to Lincoln.
